OFFICERS UNDER THE NEW REVENUE LAW

WASHINGTON Aug 11—None of the supervisors provided for in the new Revenue law have yet been appointed. Two storekeepers one at St Louis and one for the Sixth District of Indiana Morgan county have been appointed. About ten detectives were employed by Commissioner Rollins before he left Washington to attend to important cases which were undergoing inspection when the new law went into effect. Out of only 700 nominations for gaugers about 30 appointments have already been made

ADVERTISEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

The annual announcement of the Baltimore University has just appeared. It announces that its Professors are not only Southern born but served in the Southern army and openly and unblushingly asks for support almost on that ground alone. In puffing the Professors it dwells at length on the eminent services rendered by them to the "lost cause." In speaking of the advantages Baltimore offers to Southern patrons it says:

"This is emphatically a favored land within whose soil no noxious political dogmas germinate and where every white man whatever his opinions and antecedents, can think and speak and act according to the dictation of his conscience, without fear of bayonet or bastiles"

CLERKS REINSTATED

Secretary Schofield to day ordered the reinstatement of fourteen clerks who were discharged some time since from the Quartermaster's office. Nearly all put on duty again were soldiers. The work in that office had already begun to fall seriously behind on account of the reduction

YIELD OF THE VERMILLION GOLD MINES

ST PAUL Aug 11—At a meeting of the Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, W H Nobles gave a full account of the Vermillion gold mines. He speaks encouragingly of the prospects, and of Col Tyndall's plan of working one. Experiments show that the Chicago company extracted $243 in bullion from one ton, the Buckeye lode $212 and the Minnesota Mining Company's vein $100. No one ton yielded less than $50

AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN IN PROGRESS IN TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE Aug 11—The Radical State Convention which meets in this city to morrow promises to be a very imposing affair. The city is already swarming with delegates from every quarter of the State. The Convention will nominate Presidential Electors and a Congressman for the State at large, and organize for a vigorous prosecution of the campaign. General Rodgers, of McMinn, and T M Hamilton of Shelby, are the prominent candidates for Congress

A magnificent torchlight passed through the streets this evening, and an immense concourse of people are now listening to an address from prominent Republicans, at the Market House. The city is alive with enthusiasm for Grant and Colfax

The Nashville Press of this morning reports a great mass meeting of the Republicans of Smith, Wilson and DeKalb counties, at New Middletown, last Saturday. At least four thousand persons were present and listened to addresses from Hon W B Stokes and Representatives Hamilton, Robinson and Williams. Everything passed off most auspiciously

The Union men of that region are thoroughly alive, and are coming manfully to the support of Grant and Colfax

GENERAL SCHOFIELD'S INSTRUCTIONS TO GENERAL BUCHANAN

WASHINGTON Aug 11—The instructions given to General Buchanan were prepared by General Schofield with strict regard to Louisiana being as much a legal State government as that of Pennsylvania or Ohio and were fully approved by the President. The order indicates the course to be pursued in all the restored States and everything will be done here and insisted on from Department commanders South to insure speedy action in case of any trouble. Leading Democrats here are disgusted affirming that the course taken in the matter strikes directly at one of the main planks in their platform. None of the Democratic papers here to day have commented upon the order

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA—GOV BAKER AND SENATOR HENDRICKS TO HAVE A JOINT DISCUSSION—LARGE REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING AT COLUMBUS

INDIANAPOLIS Aug 11—Gov Baker and Senator Hendricks have agreed upon a joint discussion commencing on the 10th of September. Gov Baker sent the challenge.

John H Keightly, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district after boasting that he was going to show his competitor Geo C Burn... ver this District now declines to do so on account of ill health yet he is well enough to speak almost every night in the open air, at meetings

The Republicans held a mass meeting at Columbus to day. The procession was a mile and a half in length and was twenty five minutes passing a given point. There was about ...00 people present. Speeches were made by Carl Schurz, Col Thos A Nelson, Col R P Dehart and Col Thos N Stillwell. The meeting was a grand success

POLITICAL CHANGES IN WISCONSIN—SOLDIERS DISGUSTED WITH SEYMOUR AND BLAIR

MADISON Aug 10—Numerous political changes are going on in this State in favor of Grant and Colfax. Among others worthy of note the Chairman of the Republican State Committee has received letters stating that quite a number of hitherto active Democrats in Chippewa county have united with a Grant and Colfax Club at the Chippewa Falls. Among others Wm Richardson, Clerk of the County Board and a member of the Democratic County Committee. Advices are received by their committees that a number of soldiers who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket disgusted with Seymour and Blair and the platform and especially by the talk of their Southern advocates will vote for Grant and Colfax

The Republican Germans of this city are organizing a German Club

POLITICAL MATTERS IN INDIANA—ENTHUSIASTIC DEMONSTRATION

... August 10—At this place of only twelve hundred inhabitants there was the largest gathering to day ever witnessed here to greet Hon Will Cumback and Hon Wm Williams who cheered the masses up to the work of doing their share in the coming contest for power war and so great was their enthusiasm that a drenching rain for over an hour did not dampen their ardor. The audience numbered over five thousand, and when it was proposed to adjourn to the court room they would not take the chance of being able to get into a room that would hold also five hundred. One township sent a delegation of over five hundred led by a band of music. In the procession there were seven four horse teams with the vehicles gaily decked off with flowers flags and ... No other effort had been made than to send posters through the large county and it was therefore an unexpected triumph and an extraordinary greeting to loyalty

DEMOCRATIC BOLTERS IN CONVENTION

BUCYRUS Ohio August 10—There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of this county held at the Court House on Saturday evening to ratify the action of the delegates to the Congressional Convention at Monroeville in refusing ... Speeches were made by A M Jackson Thos Beer Judge Clemets and others fully sustaining the delegation in their position and denouncing the nomination of Hon W ... Noble in unmeasured terms, and branding him as a bondholder and thief and other equally complimentary terms. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the position taken at Monroeville, and requesting the County Central Committee to issue a call immediately for a convention to put a candidate in the field in opposition to Mr Noble. The Democracy of Crawford are in earnest and are determined not to support Mr Noble under any circumstances which will secure the election of General Gibson by a handsome majority

THE CROPS IN UTAH AND COLORADO

ST LOUIS Aug 10—The estimated crops in Utah this season are wheat 52,000 bushels corn 135,000 bushels, potatoes 700,000 bushels, sorghum 150,000 gallons. The grasshoppers caused more damage this year than any previous season. The entire crops in ... counties were destroyed

A larger breadth of crops was planted in Colorado this year than ever before. It is estimated that 60,000 acres are under cultivation nearly two thirds of which are planted in wheat and corn

THE TROOPS AT THE SOUTH

WASHINGTON, D C, Aug 10—General Meade's order for the concentration of troops in Alabama gave considerable dissatisfaction to Republicans there and the Governor Senator Warner and others, made a formal protest against it, insisting that the stationing of all the troops at two stations—Huntsville and Mobile—would separate them too widely. The matter was finally settled by General Meade organizing a third detachment, to be stationed at Montgomery

General Buchanan's order assuming command of the Department of Louisiana gives no direction for any concentration of troops in that State, and it is understood that none will be made, but, on the contrary they will be placed at points where trouble is anticipated

POSTAGE LAW IN RELATION TO WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS

Section three of the act passed by Congress, and approved by the President, July 27, 1868, entitled "An act to further amend the Postal laws," is as follows

SECTION 3 And be it further enacted, That section thirty five of the act of March third, eighteen hundred and sixty three, shall be so construed as to permit weekly newspapers, properly folded and addressed, when sent to regular subscribers, in the county where printed and published, to be delivered free of postage, when deposited at the office nearest the office of publication, but nothing in this act shall be so construed as to require carriers to distribute said papers, unless postage is paid upon them at the rate of five cents per quarter, and such postage must be prepaid for a term of not less than one quarter or more than one year, either at the office of mailing or of delivery, at the option of the subscriber

IMPORTANT STATISTICS BEING COLLECTED AT THE LAND OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, Aug 10—With a view of embodying in the next annual report from the General Land Office, an article on the progress of population manufactures, agriculture and commerce in this country, Commissioner Wilson addressed a circular letter to the Governors of the different States in the Union, respectfully requesting a reply to the following inquiries

1 What was the population of your State on the 1st of July, 1868, according to the most reliable data or estimate?

2 What was the aggregate true value of real and personal property respectively?

3 What amount of capital is invested in manufactures, what species of manufactures does it represent, and what is the annual value of manufactured articles?

4 What is the extent in miles of the railroad system of your State, finished and in progress, each separately and what amount of capital is devoted to this enterprise?

5 What is the character and extent of your commercial facilities embracing rivers, canals, railroads etc.?

6 What is the number of cities and towns in your State, and how many have a population of 3,000 and over?

INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE WAR DEPARTMENT CONCERNING THE EMPLOYMENT OF MILITARY TROOPS AT THE SOUTH

WASHINGTON, Aug 11—The following is a copy of the letter of instructions sent from the Army Headquarters to Major General Buchanan, commanding the Department of Louisiana

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE

To Brevet Major General R C Buchanan, commanding the Department of Louisiana, New Orleans

GENERAL—The following instructions from the Secretary of War are furnished for your government to the end that the necessary aid may be rendered by the United States as promptly as possible in case of any insurrection or domestic violence in those States embraced in your military department. You will keep yourself informed of the condition of affairs in said States and communicate promptly by telegraph to the War Department through the headquarters of the army, any facts which may make it the duty of the President under the Constitution and laws, to employ the military force of the United States. You will also maintain such disposition of the troops under your command that they may be ready to act without delay on the receipt of the President's order stationing them at, or from time to time moving them to, points where you may have reason to apprehend necessity for their use

The following extracts from the laws and the Constitution of the United States may be employed to suppress insurrection against the government of any State

Constitution—Article 4 Section 4—"The United States shall guarantee to every State in the Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion and, on application of the Legislature or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened against domestic violence

Act of Congress approved February 28, 1795—Section 1—And in case of an insurrection in any State against the government thereof it shall be lawful for the President of the United States on application of the Legislature of such State or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened to call for such number of the militia of any other State or States as may be applied for as he may judge sufficient to suppress such insurrection and section three provided always that whenever it may be necessary in the judgment of the President to use the military hereby directed to be called forth, the President shall, by proclamation command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their abodes within a limited time"

Act of Congress approved March 3 1807—"Be it further enacted &c That in all cases of insurrection or obstruction of the law either of the United States or of any individual State or Territory where it is lawful for the President of the United States to call for the militia for the purpose of suppressing such insurrection or of causing the laws to be duly executed it shall be lawful for him to employ for the same purposes such part of the land and naval forces of the United States as shall be judged necessary having first observed all the prerequisites of the law in that respect

By command of General Grant,
E D TOWNSEND
Assistant Adjutant General

The Charleston Mercury says "The platform of the Democratic party is square upon the letter of General Blair and General Blair's letter is the legitimate and natural expounding of the platform. It will avail little to deny it North South East or West. Any palliation of the fact is a perversion of the fact. It is more it is ill faith to the body of the convention and it is an attempted deception of the voters at the polls. The Richmond Examiner is correct when it says that those who attempt to lead the Democratic party if they intend to abandon its platform might as well abandon the field as they are whipped already

Zeb Vance once Governor of North Carolina lately a delegate to the Tammany Hall Convention and one of Frank Blair's "pears," exhorted the soldiers of his State when they went to join the Confederate army to fill hell so full of Yankees that their legs would stick out of the chamber windows. Zeb is very enthusiastic for Seymour and Blair

WHO SHALL TELL THE STORY?—The scope of Mr Seymour's letter of acceptance recalls an old story. A good deacon, who kept a country store, somewhere and long ago, was afflicted with a graceless son who would not earn money but showed a wonderful capacity for squandering the small gains of his parent. Thinking regular occupation and a personal interest in business might work a favorable change in the boy, the old gentleman fitted him out with a peddler's wagon, harnessed to it his old family horse, supplied him with an assortment of dry goods and nick nacks, and sent him to try his fortune in the more rural districts. In about a week the incorrigible son came back, without goods, wagon or money. Of course the old gentleman was anxious to know the reason of this, and the extent of his losses. The graceless boy ... his story as long and circuitous as possible, dreading to confess the whole truth, but it soon appeared that he used up the proceeds of the goods with which he was intrusted, and that he had been on what ... be called "a regular spree" The ... patience would not ... to wait the ... of the story, which seemed never ... to reach a culmination, and he broke in with, You don't mean to tell me, ... old Dobbin has gone too with the ... ing up with an injured air, and by no ... penitent, the prodigal son ... now, dad, I should like to know, ... this story, or be I?"

Some of the Democratic papers are trying hard to explain why Mr Seymour addressed the New York rioters as "my friends" But the reason is plain enough—they were his friends

The fact that the soldiers in 1864 gave 121,041 votes for Abraham Lincoln, and only 35,050 for McClellan may give some idea of how the same soldiers will be likely to vote this year

The Meridian (Miss.) Mercury keeps the names of Seymour and Blair at its head and with their principles and platform as a text preaches as follows: "With the skull and cross bones of the 'lost cause' before us we will swear that this is a white man's government. We must make the negro understand we are the men we were when we held him in abject bondage, and make him feel that when forbearance ceases to be a virtue he has aroused a power that will control him or destroy him."

One Williamson, a brass mounted Seymour and Blair speaker at a speech at New Orleans, on the 20th ult., arraigned the Radical party for its many crimes and misdemeanors. One of his charges of indictment was this: "We arraign them in the name of our own dearly beloved Confederate dead (cheers) whose bones are strewn all over the Northwest, killed in battle by the atrocious cruelty of the Radical Government." And such are the speakers who ask Northern soldiers to vote for Seymour and Blair.

The Memphis Avalanche says the "truest men of the country are Jefferson Davis and John C. Breckinridge. But when we cannot elect our true men, it is the duty of the friends of liberty and constitutional rights to rally to the support of a 'log,' to the defense of a gorilla, to the support of a monkey, a mule or an ass, if by so doing we can give life and vitality to great and eternal principles, and crush out an infamous despotism which erects its hideous form in the shape of Radicalism." This cannot be called complimentary to Seymour and Blair, whom the Avalanche now supports, but it is good "Democracy." The rebels expect to regain in the Presidential election what they lost by the war.

Diversity of Reasons for Supporting Seymour

A correspondent of the Bulletin at the East observes that it is not a little amusing to witness the variety and inconsistency of reasons given by different wings of the Democracy for the support of Seymour. Pendleton, at Grafton, Virginia, the other day, announced his support of the nominee because he is in favor of taxing United States bonds and against paying them. The New York World, Belmont and the Democratic monied men support him avowedly because he is in favor of paying the bonds, and not taxing them. Gov. Vance of South Carolina, and Gov. Wise of Virginia, are for Seymour and Blair because the South will gain by their election what it lost in the war of the rebellion, and Bob Toombs of Georgia, in a speech just made at Atlanta, boldly admitted that the late war was brought about by "the defeated Democratic party of 1860," declares that "we shall never have peace till the Democratic party is restored," and that is why he supports Seymour and Blair. On the other hand in New York and all through the North every Democratic editor and orator in laboring with might and main to show that no man was ever more loyal than Seymour, and that without his vigorous assistance and co-operation the Government would have been less successful than it was in putting down the rebellion. In short the New York World presents Seymour's war services as a reason for his election to the Presidency. Thus the World concedes the propriety of rewarding services during the war, by conferring high civil distinction—just such as the people propose to confer upon Gen. Grant, whose services are acknowledged as infinitely greater than Seymour's even if we concede everything for the latter that his more ardent supporters claim.

Shining Patriots

On the Fourth of July, 1863, a large army from the South was making hostile inroads in Pennsylvania menacing Philadelphia, boasting that it would capture New York, overrun the Northern States, dictate a peace to those who had taken arms to maintain the Union and accomplish a separation by the subjugation of all who opposed secession. On the Fourth of July, 1868, a large number of the very same men who had been engaged in this armed attempt to divide the country, who had essayed to capture Philadelphia and New York and who had fought with traitorous arms against the Constitution and Government, met in a Democratic Convention at New York city and resolved that they were the true patriots of the country, the friends and defenders of the Constitution and the Union, and the nation's only hope for its future preservation. Their Northern allies reiterate the same statements, and try to persuade the people that the truest friends of the country are those who lately fought to overthrow it, and that its worst enemies are those who recently periled their lives and shed their blood in its defense. The only difficulty seems to be in convincing the people of the truthfulness of those shining, disinterested patriots who invaded the loyal States in 1863, and who took part just five years later in the New York Democratic Convention.

The Fourteenth Amendment and the Public Debt.

On the 6th inst., Chief Justice Chase while holding the term of the United States Circuit Court for the District of West Virginia delivered a charge to the grand jury in which particular attention was directed to the revenue laws and to the bearing of the recently adopted fourteenth amendment of the Constitution on the public debt. He stated to the jury that "the inviolable obligation of the debt has been recognized by a solemn act of the nation in adopting the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which declares that the validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion shall never be questioned." The law of the amendment that the validity of the debt shall not be questioned was already written upon the hearts of the people and now they have made it a part of their Constitution. Yet we find numerous Copperhead orators with dense ignorance and stolid perverseness assuming that the fourteenth amendment has not been legally ratified.

The San Francisco Dispatch, a Democratic paper, heads an article with the inquiry "Was the Union Dissolved?" In 1861 the Dispatch's party maintained that it was CAMPAIGN DOCUMENTS.—A gentleman who [illegible] has furnished us with a couple of campaign documents which he says are circulated very extensively [illegible] attention and remark. They are the speech of Frank Blair at the Lindell in St. Louis, printed in form of a circular and a regular business card, done in colors and urging Grant and Colfax as [illegible]. We have both of them [illegible] everywhere in hotels [illegible] among great numbers of documents which [illegible]. The Republicans of [illegible] are wide awake, united and enthusiastic, and we believe they will carry the State in November.

Preparations are making for building a lighthouse at Cape Blanco on the southern coast of Oregon. The contract has been let for leveling the ground, for furnishing the brick and for doing other portions of the work. Next summer the lighthouse will be erected. Until the acquisition of Alaska Cape Blanco was the most westerly point in the United States.

It is curious to observe that among those who are the most excited about nigger equality and most zealous for a white man's government are a considerable class of persons in different parts of Oregon who are cohabiting with dirty Digger squaws and rearing mongrel families. In the coast counties such persons are frequently met with. They make the best kind of Democrats.

A REGIMENT OF DEMOCRATIC SOLDIERS.—An exchange publishes the following roster of a regiment of "white boys in blue," an organization composed in part of soldiers who will vote for Seymour and Blair: "Colonel 1, Lt. Colonel 1, Major 1, Captains 9, Privates 2, total 14." "Beggarly accounts" these Democratic rosters.

The London Economist, the leading financial journal of Great Britain, says of Gen. Blair's revolutionary letter: "Nothing so decidedly secessionist in tendency as this has been put forth by nominal Unionists since the beginning of the war. Indeed, if General Blair's programme meant more than bluster, it would mean another war."

The Copperhead paper puts the nominees of its party at the head of its column, and directly underneath says, "The Road to Ruin."

Revolutionary Future with the Democrats—Seymour's Denial

[From the New York Herald, August 8.]

Mr Seymour has accepted the Democratic nomination again by a formal letter. His letter was scarcely necessary, as he accepted the nomination personally before, but it may be that as he declined it a great many times he intends to accept an equal number. An unnecessary letter would be a foolish thing from almost any other candidate, but Governor Seymour is one of the few who may be safely trusted with pens and paper, for his thoughts are so attenuated, so vague, dim and impalpable by the time they are written that acres of them would not furnish a sentence that could be used with effect either for or against him. If Seymour's letter faithfully presents the operations of his brain, that must be the least positive and effective organ that was ever encased in the cranium of a man of respectable position.

There is but one point in his letter that touches an important act of the present canvass. Mr Seymour has evidently seen the harm that the Southern fire eaters have done to the Democracy. He has felt that their revolutionary declarations were alarming the people, and, in view of this, frightened for the cause, he ventures some sentences intended to reassure us. And what is the reassurance he has given? He only tells us that revolution cannot follow a Democratic victory, merely because the Democracy cannot get all the power of the nation into their hands at one election. "The election of a Democratic Executive and a majority of Democratic members of the House of Representatives would not give to that party organization the power to make sudden or violent changes." There is to be no revolution therefore, because the Senate stands in the way. Not that Wade Hampton, Toombs and the rest are wrong in reviving the old anti-war style of Southern harangue, not that the Democratic leaders North and South do not pant to tear up and destroy the whole present organization and retrace the steps we have taken towards peace, but merely that the Democrats can at most elect only a President and House of Representatives, and with these can do so little harm that the people need not be pushed by fear of the result to act against them. This is the best reason the distinguished gentleman has to give in favor of his party. This looks very much as if the Democratic trainers, frightened at the way Northern sentiment takes away Democratic speeches, had put Seymour to correct all that by some smooth sentences in his letters, expecting confidently that he could erase from the public mind all the impression made by Southern fire eaters. But this is the most blundering correction we ever saw.

From the candidate's own utterance therefore, we are assured that the limit to the Democratic disposition to make "sudden and violent changes" will be the power that party possesses. We know what that limit is, for we have lamentable experience that a party possessing two branches of the government will not be stayed in its extravagance by the opposition of the third branch. The Democrats, if the case arise, will find a way to do without the Senate, as the Republicans found a way to practically thrust the President aside. The people, therefore, must not rely upon the Senate in venturing to trust the Democrats for a change. They mean nothing less than an absolute change of everything that a party can lay hands on, and a change conceived in the most violent and anti-national spirit, and the lame denial of their candidate strengthens the evidence of this. Bad enough these past years with the Radical faction, we should fare infinitely worse in the hands of the Democratic faction, and our only chance is the election of Grant, and the hope that he will put down all the factions and give a grand assertion of the law.

The Presidential Campaign

POLK COUNTY, Aug. 22, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I read an article in your paper a short time ago, calling upon the Union men of Oregon to wake up, and to use some effort to carry the State in November, for Grant and Colfax. I was much pleased with his article. It expressed the truth just as it is. I am sure if we will use half the exertion that our opponents are using, we can carry the State by a handsome majority. We have the material in our own hands if we wish to use them. Rebellion, treason, fraud and corruption of all kinds have been practiced by our opponents, and they are to-day, boasting of it as a merit. I was just thinking, the other day while reading the proceedings of the late Democratic Convention at New York, that the time would soon come when a man, in order to be successful in that party would have to prove that he had been a rebel in the [illegible] or that he had given all the aid and encouragement to the rebellion. Just let me ask Union men of Oregon who lost friends and relatives in the Union army, if they can stand idle and let the control of this Government go into the hands of such a party? I think they would answer no. But, says one, the nigger is the trouble. If we elect Grant and Colfax, I fear niggers will be put on an equality with white men. Let me here repeat a conversation that I had with a prominent Democrat of this county not long since. Said he, "You Black Republicans are trying to remove the barrier between the whites and the blacks, and when you do I am going with the nigger!" I could only say to him in that event that the nigger would have my sympathy, for I did not think it would be right to compel him to associate with a Democrat.

We are waiting anxiously to hear from the Presidential Electors. When they open the canvass everybody should turn out and hear them. It is only a little over two months until the great battle is to be fought, which, I believe, will decide the destinies of this nation for all time to come. If Grant and Colfax are elected, we shall have peace, union and prosperity. If Seymour and Blair are elected, we shall have war, revolution and destruction. Then let us turn our attention for the present from railroads to the November election. If Grant and Colfax are defeated, it makes but little difference to us which side the railroad runs or whether we have any railroad.

Aid to Southern Civil Authorities by the Military

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Instructions have been sent from the Adjutant General's Office to the Department Commanders relating to the use of troops in aid of the civil authorities in the South. [illegible] the Attorney General [illegible] setting forth the conditions under which Marshals and Sheriffs may [illegible] the assistance of the military [illegible]. The obligations of military individuals [illegible] with all citizens to [illegible] Marshals and Sheriffs must be [illegible] to the paramount duty as [illegible] permanent military body, since troops [illegible] act only in their proper organized capacity under their own officers and obedience to immediate orders of those officers. All officers commanding troops summoned to aid any Marshal or Sheriff must also judge for himself, on his own official responsibility, whether the service is lawful, necessary and compatible with a proper discharge of his ordinary military duties, and must limit his action absolutely to proper and necessary execution of lawful precept exhibited to him by a marshal or sheriff. If time will permit, every demand from a civil officer for military aid, whether for the execution of civil process or the suppression of insurrection, should be forwarded to the President with all the material facts of the case for his orders, and in all cases the highest commander whose orders can be given in time to meet the emergency will alone assume the responsibility of action by a military department [illegible] troops where there is reason to apprehend the necessity for their use. By their passive interposition between the hostile parties the danger of collision may be avoided.

Department commanders and, in cases of necessity, their subordinates, are expected in this regard to exercise their own responsibility and discretion to the end that peace may be preserved.

And it came to pass in the third year of the reign of George the Third who was ruler over the land of Webfoot, that the people went throughout all the land that KOHN & FISHEL at No. 91 Front street, Portland, were selling Dry Goods and Clothing at fabulously low prices, and all the people heard it and they straightway came unto that place, and when they had demanded the price at KOHN & FISHEL's store, they marveled and said, "The half has not been told us, for here we can buy all kinds of Clothing and Dry Goods for ourselves [illegible] and our little ones much cheaper than at any other place in all the land of Webfoot." And from that day even until now the people have come in great numbers to buy their goods of KOHN & FISHEL.

Growing Reputation.—If the entire correspondence from South America, Central America and the West Indies, received by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith during the last twelve months were published at length, it would probably be considered one of the most extraordinary collections of [illegible] testimony on record. The letters, written in every variety of style and emanating from individuals of almost every class, are, nevertheless, all of the same tenor. They [illegible] private [illegible], planters, military officers, artisans, lawyers, &c., all [illegible] story, admitting without reserve or qualification that the tonics heretofore in use in those regions have been generally and justly superseded by HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The foreign orders for the article from Europe, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, East Indies, Cape of Good Hope, Sandwich Islands, &c., have been heavier than at any former period.

As an antidote to malaria, a stomachic and general invigorant, they all testify to its invaluable efficacy.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN [illegible] It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and California—a selection [illegible] THE DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible] the latest, and the most copious [illegible] published by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY [illegible] is double that published by any other journal in Oregon and in the particular of [illegible] and the Markets we [illegible] especially in matters pertaining to Oregon [illegible]

Single copies 12½ cents or $3 00 per year to any part of the United States or British Columbia.

AFFAIRS ABOUT VANCOUVER —From the Vancouver Register we gather the following items of news from Washington Territory Mr Benjamin [illegible] is [illegible] one quarter [illegible] endeavoring to get up another school [illegible] has been placed under the patronage of the M E Church by action of the recent Conference Greater prosperity is anticipated as a consequence of this change. Rev J L Spaulding [illegible] place with an order of Conference, left on Thursday for Lafayette, Oregon his new field of labor Rev W D Nichols has also removed his family to Oregon preparatory to entering upon his duties as Principal of Santiam Academy The successors of the above gentlemen have not as yet arrived A good [illegible], through the columns of the Register, complains that the church members of Vancouver avoid the Temperance Society The average value of [illegible] improved lands in Clarke county is $1 25 per acre [illegible] bushels of wheat were grown in Clarke county last year, worth $1 00 per bushel and [illegible] 000 tons of hay worth $8 per ton [illegible] publication of the premium list seems to have awakened much interest in the approaching County Fair From present indications it is fair to presume that success must crown the efforts of the earlier [illegible] projectors No obstacle exists to the practical carrying out of the programme save a lack of willingness in any.

BUSINESS OF THE WEEK —During the past week aside from the shipping trade, commercial circles have not been very active People of the interior have been busily engaged in gathering in the large crops of grain [illegible] quently trade in that direction has not been lively. The following [illegible] vessels are [illegible] or have been in this port during the past ten days Th[illegible] Geo. S Wright, John L. Stephens and [illegible] and the ship Jeanne Alice, the bark Melancthon and [illegible] W Almy These several vessels arriving [illegible] have given our city a livelier appearance than the [illegible] of our traders would indicate Yet [illegible] trade with the interior is at present rather dull [illegible] are busily engaged in replenishing their stocks for the fall season and the improvements upon [illegible] with the numerous private improvements [illegible] tend to keep our people busy and speaks well [illegible] city hereafter

[illegible] MARKET —The city of Portland owns two or [illegible] of land which were set apart as market [illegible] At present they are of no benefit whatever either to the city or any one else and in fact if they are not to be [illegible] to advantage in some way it would be [illegible] if they were in the hands of private individuals who [illegible] improve them and pay the taxes on them. [illegible] of the writer of this is to call attention to the [illegible] plan should be adopted to answer the design of those who [illegible] these blocks to the city for a specific [illegible] that of a public market. We have no definite [illegible] to make in regard to the matter but if a [illegible] could be made by which those in want of [illegible] and country produce could know just [illegible] to obtain them from first hands, and the ped[illegible] vegetable wagons through the town would [illegible] certainly work beneficially both to [illegible] and consumer

[illegible]—The Good Templars [illegible] Oregon City night before last was a very pleas[illegible] The boat arrived at that place about 9 o'clock [illegible] on board were met by a delegation of the Ore[illegible] and escorted to the Good Templars hall [illegible] of Willamette Lodge had been [illegible] Those not members of the order [illegible] numbers to the Cliff House where [illegible] his capacious dining hall and the [illegible] went in on the "light fantastic" until morn[illegible] The meeting of the Good Templars in the [illegible] at their hall Speeches [illegible] and others, and at daylight all [illegible] but owing to the dense fog did [illegible] half past seven yesterday morning [illegible] have enjoyed themselves hugely

[illegible]—We learn that at the late session of [illegible] of the M E Church, that body [illegible] of $4,000, (currency), to extinguish [illegible] upon the P C Advocate, and $3,000 [illegible] to aid in the [illegible] tion of the paper the [illegible] This latter sum is to be used as follows [illegible] of the first, and $500 for each of the last [illegible] The exhibit of the financial condition of the paper, made by the Publishing C[illegible] places the [illegible] encouraging footing than it has oc[illegible] time; its [illegible] in the aggregate [illegible] 74 and its liabilities to $1 511,13 [illegible] in favor of the office of $4,855 61

[illegible]—The following new books have been ad[illegible] Military History of U S [illegible] of the Pacific States [illegible] Life of Abraham Lincoln by Holland [illegible] A E Brachvogel, Polago, by Eliza [illegible] Modern P[illegible] by A R [illegible] by A V Kirwan; Autobiogra[illegible] Knapp Woman's Wrongs by Gail [illegible] The Lost Cause Regained by C A Pollard [illegible] the City Behind the Scene, by Elizabeth [illegible]

[illegible] PLOWS —Messrs Lewis & Wolgamot of [illegible] have engaged in the manufacture of Plows which is destined to drive all others from [illegible] They are ready to supply the farmers of [illegible] the Pfeil Gang or Wolgamot Plow, [illegible] the latter of Mr Lewis' own in[illegible] [illegible] agriculturists of the country have spoken [illegible] of these plows, and we doubt not that [illegible] sale as soon as a knowledge of their [illegible] circulated among the farmers of [illegible]

COUNTY FAIR.—The most extensive prep[illegible] being made by the citizens of Washington [illegible] coming annual Fair of their their ag[illegible] Although their former Fair proved [illegible] it is expected that the ensuing one will [illegible] both in the number of those attend[illegible] in the variety and extent of the exhibi[illegible] of Multnomah and adjoining counties [illegible] invited to attend The Fair will begin on [illegible] and continue until the 19th

[illegible]—Those who wish to "drive away dull [illegible] do better than to visit Union Hall to night [illegible] Troupe will give one of their chaste and [illegible] Their performance last night [illegible] we missed Dr 'Stanley's sing[illegible] The [illegible] did very well in their respective parts [illegible] will regret the time or the price of [illegible]

[illegible]—We noticed at the store of Mr [illegible] on First street some of the finest peaches we [illegible] since we left the other side of the Missis[illegible] [illegible] were grown at the Luelling nursery at [illegible] of the largest size and finest flavor [illegible] they can be beaten anywhere There were [illegible] of these very fine peaches at Mr O C[illegible] [illegible] supply of first rate family groceries always on hand

[illegible] whether in damp or dry, cold or hot [illegible] have such articles of wearing apparel as [illegible] of the weather And it makes no differ[illegible] wanted, in the clothing line, Messrs K[illegible] are ready to furnish their customers with [illegible] as they need to render them comfortable in [illegible] in appearance They have a very [illegible] dry goods and clothing now on hand which [illegible] selling at very low prices

[illegible] SALE.—All who wish to secure a valuable lot will bear in mind that a lot lying in the best business portion of the city [illegible] do well to attend at the Court House at two [illegible] noon, when A B Richardson, auction[illegible] will sell to the highest bidder the north half and [illegible] of lot one in block seventy eight, being the [illegible] south-east corner of Front and Washington [illegible] It is one of the best business locations in the [illegible]

[illegible] Hon. Geo H Williams U S Senator from [illegible] will probably arrive in this city by the middle of [illegible] week. We suggest that the citizens of Portland [illegible] allow us to receive him as will show a just [illegible] of the distinguished services he has rendered [illegible] upon the floor of the Senate The Union [illegible] the State will doubtless give him a cordial wel[illegible] again

[illegible] FREIGHTS —The P T Co's steamboat [illegible] since Wednesday has brought the following [illegible] 1,070 sks flour 100 sks and 57 cases bac[illegible] 14 rolls leather 98 sks feed 43 bales wool [illegible] 2,000 feet ash lumber 34 half barrels 10 bales and [illegible] of [illegible] chandise

QUARTERLY MEETING —The Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church for East Portland will commence to-day

The Petersburg (Va) Index says that should deliverance from Radical rule fail to come there are millions in the South to whom life will become so worthless, that they would gladly throw it away to be avenged on the adversary This is again digging the last ditch of which we heard so much during the war It is the one ditch which will prove fatal in the future

THE FIGURES OF AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER —The New York Sun independent publishes the following table, showing the States which, in its opinion will give majorities for Grant those which will give majorities for Seymour and those which may be set down as doubtful

The Sun thinks this table will bear examination, and doubts whether any experienced and judicious politician will find fault with it "Our object" it says, "is to arrive at the truth no matter which party it helps or which it hurts "

Rev T L Cuyler writes as follows in the New York Evangelist in regard to the nomination of Gen Frank Blair

"It is a wonder that our indolent and drunken college class mate Frank Blair has been nominated for that high office which Andrew J has once disgraced by his intoxication Poor Blair's only distinction in college was his amputation of a class mate's nose with a carving knife in a tipsy spree

The Copperhead press do not say a word against Colfax They ought to abuse him as they do Grant They do not treat him respectfully !

It is said, "You can't eat your cake and have it," but Blair drinks his horn and blows it

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, August 28, 1868.

Our latest advices from New York are of the 27th. Gold quotations, 14[illegible]; U. S. 5-20s quoted at [illegible] for the issues of '65 and '67. San Francisco Legal Tender rates, [illegible], with barely a slight upward tendency. Liverpool dispatches of yesterday quote Wheat at 12s 6d. New York telegrams quote California Wheat at $2[illegible]; Flour quiet at $8 [illegible]. The Wool market at the East is active. The various grades of Springs ranging from [illegible].

The San Francisco Wheat market reports still quote Wheat [illegible], though the supply is greater. Prices remain as at last quotations. Transactions are [illegible] made at former rates, with perhaps a trifling increase in the demand. Large exportations of Wheat are made every week, principally to Australia, and the south over 10,000 tons being shipped during the ten days previous to the 21st. The Wheat crop of California, like that of Oregon this season, has been greatly productive, and that State will furnish a vast quantity to the markets of the world. In our own market, wholesale prices are unchanged and the present figures are likely to continue during the summer. When the fall trade sets in we expect to note considerable activity in articles now dull. Woolen Goods, Agricultural Implements and Imported Groceries are quiet, and trade inactive. New Wheat is arriving in small quantities and selling at 65@70 cents. The receipts are smaller than was anticipated, but ten days more will probably witness greatly increased arrivals. Oats are firm at the prices given, and at present bid fair to be more in demand during the season than Wheat. Flour is firm at rates unchanged from last week, though the demand is a little greater and extra brands scarce. Some of our merchants have received large addition to their stocks by the John L. Stephens, which arrived on Tuesday, and by sailing vessels during the week. The Jeanne Alice, Helen W. Almy and the Mo[illegible], from San Francisco, are in port discharging cargo. The Live Yankee and the John L. Stephens have sailed for San Francisco, the Geo. S. Wright and Active for Victoria. These several vessels arriving and departing during the week have given our city quite a lively appearance, though trade with the interior has been quiet.

Weekly Retail Family Market.

PORTLAND, August 28, 1868.

In our family market report this week, about the only changes noted are in prices of Vegetables and Fruits, most of which are ruling lower. Owing to large receipts of these articles, prices have fallen considerably. In addition to home produce, a large shipment was received during the week per steamer John L. Stephens and as a consequence the supply is somewhat beyond present demand. Staple articles of family use, however, bear a good price; Butter, Eggs, Bacon and Hams find a ready sale at good figures, while all the Fruits and Vegetables are very cheap. Potatoes, common and sweet, are plenty, while of Turnips, Parsnips, Carrots, Beets, Onions, Cabbage, etc., there is an abundant supply. Of Fruits there is almost an overstocked market; Plums, Apples, P[illegible] and Pears can be found in all the market houses in the utmost quantities. New Oregon Tomatoes, the first of the season, appeared in the market the past week. They are selling at 8 cents per pound.

Ye Pimpled, Blotched and Ulcerated Victims of Scrofulous Diseases who drag your unclean persons into the company of better men, take AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and purge out the foul corruption from your blood. Restore your health and you will not only enjoy life better, but make your company more tolerable to those who must keep it.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

PORTLAND, Og'n, July 28, 1868.

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus, I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim. Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease, and lay insensible for four hours, when Dr. Jim was called, and in 20 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and asleep. I believe that there is no other doctor on the Pacific coast that could have relieved me as quick as Dr. Jim did. M. O. MORGAN.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern:—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel, and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which, if he would only take the case to Court, would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tinsmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
